

12 September 1950

Major General J. M. Swing, USA
Commandant
Army War College
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

Dear General Swing:

When I accepted your invitation to speak to the faculty and student body of the Army War College next November, I promised that I would nominate a substitute if circumstances prevented my being with you.

As you have undoubtedly learned I will be assuming Fleet Command assignment in the near future, and hence will be unable to make the presentation to the Army War College. Accordingly, I have nominated a member of my operational staff, Mr. Shane MacCarthy, to make the lecture.

Informal notification from the Pentagon states that the time for the lecture has been moved up one day -- to Thursday, 16 November 1950. Mr. MacCarthy will be available on that day. I have asked him to get in touch with you directly to furnish you the necessary background information and other material which you may require in keeping with your plans.

Sincerely,

W. H. Hillenkoetter
W. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

SMacC/dhl

Distr:Orig&1-add

1-DCI w/Basic

1-CenRec - w/Basic

MORI/CDF